

23rd February 2013.

Hi Darren,

Just a quick email to say thanks again for fitting our lovely kitchen. I've just sent an email off to my contact at B&Q to let them know how happy I am with your work.

As promised, here are a couple of photos. It's looking quite lived in now, especially as I managed to drop a roasting pan of hot oil all down the cupboard fronts on Christmas day! Still, no harm done fortunately and we are still enjoying the lovely new space.

Regards,

Bex.
